

To the editor: Tom Kincaid has shown in several ways that he has the ability, desire and leadership skills to be the man we need for mayor of Kannapolis.

As a businessman, he has successfully operated Caremore Retirement Center, where he and his staff provide a caring and loving atmosphere for our most vulnerable citizens. I speak with first-hand knowledge of this as he cared for my mother, mother-in-law, uncle and very dear friend for a period of over 10 years. As a member of Rotary, he used his leadership skills to secure, refurbish and supply equipment for a medical assistance trailer to be used to provide aid to victims of natural disasters. As a member of Bethpage Presbyterian Church, he has been faithful to the congregation as an elder and on a mission team. As a friend of over 20 years, he is the one who can be counted on in times of crisis as well as celebration. You can see through these examples of his leadership and faithfulness that as the mayor, Tom Kincaid can help Kannapolis grow to become a vivacious and prosperous city. Please cast your vote for Tom Kincaid for mayor on Nov. 5
